Shims

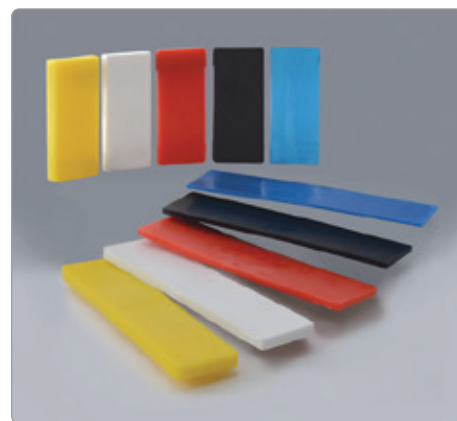

Shims

- quick and accurate assembly

- Fast and easy handling
- Does not split when piercing nails/screws
- Not affected by damp, rot, or dry rot
- Economical and timesaving
- No toxic smoke in case of fire
- Produced in accordance with ISO 9001:2000

The Shims are made from the same high quality PE as the Knudsen Wedges and therefore have the same positive properties against moisture, pressure load and ageing.

Shims are typically used in connection with the insertion of thermal glass, the installation of kitchens, bathrooms, floors and windows, but are also used in countless other contexts in everyday life.
